Bank were signed. The Food Bank is an exemplary model of regional cooperation to meet collectively the region's food shortages in times of emergencies and natural calamities. The South Asian University will be developed as a centre of excellence in higher education for the entire region.

* There was full agreement that SAFTA was one of the most successful outcomes of SAARC's collective efforts. To realise its full potential SAFTA should integrate trade in services. The importance of implementing trade facilitation measures was also underlined.
* The SAARC countries agreed to work together on a roadmap, Inter alia, in the fields of poverty alleviation, food security, energy, water environment, climate change, trade and transport, information and communication technology, tourism, education, culture and counter-terrorism.
* The importance of people-to-people contact as a key constituent in regional connectivity was stressed.
* The SAARC countries committed themselves to combat terrorism and agreed to consider India's proposal to work towards finalising an Agreement on Mutual Legal Assistance in Criminal Matters.

Over the years, SAARC has established a framework to promote regional cooperation. Implementation of the decisions taken at the recent SAARC Summits would boost intra-regional trade and investment, enhance understanding through increased people-to-people contact and promote cultural exchanges and travel within the region.
